

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING NIGHT VISION AND EOS 2009 AS A DELEGATE:

Extensive networking opportunities with delegates & speakers:

chiefs of Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coastguard and Emergency Services, Senior Researchers in Development and Engineering, Personnel in Industry, Government and Academia, Systems Integrators, Strategists, Analysts & Consultants, Military and Civil Programme Managers, Police, Law Enforcement, Special Forces and Homeland Security, Government Officials, Defence Department Policy Makers and Procurement Decision Makers, Unit and Forces Commanders, Aircrew, Vessel and Vehicle Crews, Senior Maintenance Officers, Heads of Training Organisations, Directors of Equipment Capability (DECs), Defence Attaches, CEOs, Presidents and MDs in key industries, Business Development and Purchasing Directors and Qualifying Organisations & Human Factor Experts

- from numerous services and organisations and up to 30 different nations

Speakers, who are experts in their field, sharing a first hand view on the demanding circumstances of today's missions and their perspectives on how they plan, approach and execute these demanding tasks.

The broad range of fascinating topics that will be covered which will give a unique insight into the rapidly evolving sensor & display technology, integration & bandwidth, man & machine, current operations and future developments

The opportunity to meet with many leading Night Vision & EOS suppliers displaying the latest in Night Vision & EOS equipment, services and technology:

Electro-optics, Components/materials, Image intensifiers, Aircraft manufacturers, Photonics, Surveillance and reconnaissance, Optronics, Cameras and lenses, IR detectors/scopes, NV lighting, Laser rangefinders, Fibre optics, Thermal imaging, Training and simulation, Solider Technology, Thermal weapon sites, Testing/maintenance, Integrated helmets, Software suppliers, Millimetre-wave imaging, Satellite sensors, Short-wave infrared, Laser illumination, Laser imaging, Enhanced vision systems, Day night all weather (DNAW) sensor suites, image fusion, Periscopes and optronic masts, Laser mine detection and ASW sensors, Colour night vision systems, Vehicle driver visual aids, Vehicle crew vision systems and Vehicle target acquisition systems

The delegate package – executive package including list of all event attendees, speakers' biographies, access to speakers' presentations online after the event, one year's free subscription to Digital Battlespace magazine & copy of Night Vision 2009 handbook. Comprehensive support to delegates with professional staff available to advise before and during the conference on all aspects, on-site accommodation at highly competitive rates and high class catering with all refreshments provided throughout the event.

Click HERE to return to the Night Vision and EOS 2009 website